

Education PhD, Counseling Emphasis

Admission Requirements

In addition to meeting the application and admissions requirements of the Graduate School, students must submit:

- Three letters of recommendation (at least two from individuals with earned doctorates, preferably prior instructors).
- A copy of a paper you have written on a scholarly topic, as a writing sample.
- A professional resume.
- Evidence of above-average academic records. A GPA of 3.5 or higher is preferred.
- Answers to these three questions (limit responses to 300 words or less per question)
 - How do you envision the UMSL doctoral program preparing you to meet your career goals?
 - What are your experiences working with diverse populations and what have you learned from these experiences?
 - What personal qualities do you possess that relate to your interest in doctoral education in counseling?
- Optional: GRE scores.

Admission is competitive, and a favorable vote of an admission interview committee, composed of faculty in the emphasis area, is required.

Degree Program

- Coursework: A minimum of 60 credit hours is required beyond the Master's degree, including 9 hours of dissertation research. Students must follow the residency requirements of the Graduate School.
- Dissertation: All students must defend orally a written dissertation proposal to their dissertation committee. A dissertation embodying the results of the original research must be accepted by the dissertation committee and the Graduate School.

Admission Application

To ensure time for review and decision, applicants should submit the Graduate School application, college transcripts, and any program-specific materials (e.g. supplemental application, letters of recommendation, etc.) well in advance of the November 1st deadline. Please note that unofficial transcripts can be uploaded with the Graduate School application to expedite admissions decisions; however, official transcripts must be received directly from all prior institutions attended before regular admission to any program will be granted. In addition, applicants are urged to request transcripts and letters or recommendation two weeks before completing the online application. Consideration of applications cannot be undertaken until all materials are available.
