

Criminology and Criminal Justice BS

The interdisciplinary curricula unify a body of knowledge from criminology, social science, law, public administration, and corrections, and provide the student with an understanding of the assumptions, values, and processes of the system of justice. Many pre-law students choose criminology and criminal justice as an undergraduate major because of the excellent preparation offered for law school.

General Education Requirements

Majors must satisfy the university and college general education requirements. Foreign language proficiency is not required, although students are encouraged to take foreign language courses. Majors may not take the following courses on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis: criminology and criminal justice courses; SOC 3220, Quantitative Techniques in Sociology; or SOC 3230, Research Methods. Additionally, substitutions approved by departmental advisers for these courses may not be taken on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis.

Declaring the Criminology and Criminal Justice Major

Students must complete the following courses before declaring the major:

CRIMIN 1100	Introduction to Criminology and Criminal Justice	3
CRIMIN 1110	Theories of Crime	3
CRIMIN 2210	Research Methods in Criminology and Criminal Justice	3
CRIMIN 2220	Statistical Analysis in Criminology and Criminal Justice ¹	4

¹

Students must successfully complete CRIMIN 2220 with a grade of C- or better within three attempts.

Degree Requirements

Courses used to fulfill the social science or state requirements may not be taken from courses in the major. Students may register for 3000-5000 level courses only after completing ENGL 3100 (Advanced Expository Writing).

Students may register for 3000-5000 level courses only after prerequisites have been satisfied or after obtaining a signature from the adviser in criminology and criminal justice or consent of the instructor.

Criminology majors may not take course numbers 1100, 2260, or 3345 offered through UM-Independent Studies to fulfill degree requirements in the major.

Credit for Police Officer Certified Police Academy Training

Credit may be allowed for individuals certified as law enforcement officers in the states of Missouri and Illinois, as well as certified Federal law enforcement officers/agents for police academy training. Consideration may be given to individuals certified as law enforcement officers/agents from other states on a case-by-case evaluation. Individuals who qualify as certified law enforcement officers/agents may receive up to 15 hours of credit for Criminology and Criminal Justice (CCJ) coursework awarded at the discretion of the CCJ department faculty. To count toward a degree, the credit granted must be appropriate to the student's curriculum.

Expected Learning Outcomes

- Students will demonstrate critical thinking to reflect a depth, breadth and integration of knowledge in the key areas of criminology and criminal justice, law, theory, research methods, statistics, and criminal justice policy.
- Students will demonstrate an understanding of the three areas of the criminal justice system: policing, courts, and corrections.
- Students will analyze the role that class, race, gender and culture play in crime and criminal justice.
- Students will be able to evaluate and report research findings and data in a professional and ethical manner.

- Graduates will be able to formulate and assess research questions, recognize the need for information and the knowledge to procure that information from relevant scholarly literature and databases, design research projects grounded in theory and scholarship, and evaluate data critically.
