

Modern Languages Minor

A minor in Modern Languages requires the completion of 4 courses beyond the introductory sequence (1001, 1002 and 2101), two in each of two different languages. For students who are seeking a B.A. in a Modern Language, the two languages must be different from the language in which they are majoring.