

Social Justice in Education Graduate Certificate

The Graduate Certificate in Social Justice in Education supports the understanding, knowledge, and skills needed to create a just and equitable society. The curriculum focuses on institutional and personal processes, values, attitudes, and behaviors that sustain injustice while encouraging the development of positive educational, familial, community-centric, and social group advocacy and action.

The Graduate Certificate in Social Justice is a 12 credit hour program. The following courses are required:

EDUC 6408	Graduate Seminar ¹	3
EDUC 6408	Graduate Seminar ²	3
ED FND 6200	Demographic Contexts of Education	3
ED FND 6431	History of African American Education	3
Total Hours		12

¹ Topic must be Race, Trauma, and Education

² Topic must be Intersectional Justice in Education